

NEF Golf Classic to Take Place on May 5

4-18-08

The 10th Anniversary Golf Classic of the Norwalk Education Foundation, coinciding with the foundation's decade of opening doors for Norwalk's children and Cinco de Mayo, is set for the tournament's traditional venue at the Shorehaven Golf Club Monday, May 5.

More than one hundred golfers are expected for the 12:30 p.m. start for a foursomes competition offering low gross and low net prizes, a putting contest, prizes for the longest drive on No. 12 and closest to the pin on No. 15 and a brand new 2008 Ford Edge from McMahan Ford for a hole-in-one on the par-3 17th hole.

The event begins at 11 a.m. with access to the driving range and continues with a buffet lunch in the clubhouse.

Cocktails will be served at 5:30 p.m. and the awards dinner will begin at 7 p.m., which will end with live and silent auctions for an array of prizes, including tickets to a Bruce Springsteen concert and New York Mets, Giants and Jets games.

The entry fee is $325 for individuals, $1,300 for a foursome. Sponsorships are also available.

Registration information and additional details are available online at their Web site www.norwalkeducation.org, from the tournament chairman Patrick Shields at 899-0499 or shields@globalrecruitment.com or from Lauren Rosato at the NEF at 854-4068 or online at lrosato@norwalkeducation.org.

The NEF enriches the educational experience of the 11,000 students at Norwalk's 19 public schools.

The organization is an independent nonprofit with a mission to effect positive change by providing programs and funds for innovative classroom instruction, teacher and technology training and a variety of learning opportunities beyond the school day.
